HERE COMES THE WEST END NSL!

● John Braniff of the South Australian Brewing Company shows off a can of West End with the NSL logo in the background.

By CRAIG MCKENZIE

The $3 million, four-year marriage between the South Australian Brewing Company and the National League is the greatest sponsorship breakthrough in the history of club soccer in Australia.

That deals kicks off this year, coinciding with the revamped, 14-team, one-league national competition which some see as a last-ditch attempt at achieving a viable format for Australian soccer's premier competition.

The National League started in 1977 as a 14-team, one-league competition. Bonus points for wins by four or more goals were introduced in 1979, the league was increased to 16 teams in 1981 and in 1983 a three-points-a-win system was adopted only to be dropped the following year when the league became a 24-team, two-division competition.

We have had inter and intra conference games, we have seen a top-four series come in 1978 and go in 1981, we have seen changes made to the National Cup competition which was instituted in 1978, and we have seen the introduction of a final five series to determine the national champion.

Somewhat paradoxically, change has been one of the National League's few constants. Financial viability hasn't but the backing of the South Australian Brewing Company combined with other sponsorship deals with Mitre and Ansett provide a basis for economic stability that the National League has sought for long.

The 1987 West End National Soccer League is made up of seven clubs from Victoria, six from NSW and one from South Australia. The clubs are: Brunswick Juventus, Heidelberg, Footscray JUST, Preston Makedonia, South Melbourne Hellas, George Cross and Melbourne Croatia (from Vicotira), Sydney Croatia, Sydney City Hakoah, Sydney Olympic, Marconi, St George and APIA Leichhardt (NSW) and Adelaide Juventus (SA).

The problem of promotion and relegation has plagued the National League since its inception. It has been clarified for 1987 in that the 13th and 14th placed clubs at the end of the season will face automatic relegation. The winner of the 1987 NSW State League competition will fill one of those vacancies for the 1988 season. The other vacancy will be filled by the winner of a play-off between the State League champions of Victoria, South Australia and Queensland. The play-off format will be decided by the executive of the Australian Soccer Federation.

There has been a great deal of controversy in recent seasons over the league's application of the term "champion team". There will be a final five series this year but whether or not the winner of that series will be hailed as the 1987 West End National League champion was yet to be determined as we went to press. It may be that the league bosses decide to confer the championship title upon the leading team at the end of the home and away season, in keeping with a well established tradition in the soccer world. We'll just have to wait and see.

The National Cup competition established in 1978 will continue. It was called the Nanda National Cup last year but as we went to press the league was negotiating sponsorship of the Cup with Nanda and two other companies.

The backing of the South Australian Brewing Company will be divided equally between cash payments and promotions. A massive TV advertising campaign will be mounted this year highlighting the association between the National League and the South Australian Brewing Company.

Posters featuring top playing personalities, car stickers, sports bags, T-shirts, caps and badges will form part of the promotional deal financed by the brewers.

The Mitre sponsorship also spans the next four years and principally involves match and training balls. Mitre will supply the balls at cost meaning that, in retail terms, its sponsorship is worth a great deal more than $200,000.

Ansett is still the official carrier for the National League.

Affiliation fees for member clubs of the league won't exceed $25,000 for 1987 and the bulk of that money will go towards travel costs.

There's every reason to believe that the 1987 West End National League will be a successful competition. Interstate rivalry, the fight for the final five and the battle to avoid relegation will give the league a sharp, competitive edge.

The clashes between the Croatias of Sydney and Melbourne are bound to draw big crowds while Marconi, APIA Leichhardt and Brunswick Juventus will be flat out to knock sister Italian club and 1986 national champion Adelaide Juventus off its perch.

So let's hope that the 1987 West End National League provides the kind of thrills and spills that make soccer such a great sport. If it does, then we just might be blessed with increases in attendances, something which would bring a smile to the faces of every Australian soccer fan.

Socceroo boss sets his sights on Seoul

● Steve Maxwell

● Alan Hunter

By CRAIG MCKENZIE

Frank Arok created the embryo last year of a Socceroo team he hopes will grow into a very competitive unit and will take the first step later this year on its path toward a berth in the 1988 Seoul Olympic Games.

The Socceroos played 10 games in 1986, winning five, drawing two and losing two. They scored 12 goals and conceded eight.

Eight players made their Socceroo debuts last year. They were: Alan Hunter (Heidelberg), David Lowe (Marconi), Steve Maxwell (Adelaide Juventus), Serge Melta (Adelaide Juventus), Angie Postecoglou (South Melbourne Hellas), Russell Stewart (Brisbane Lions), Ernie Tapai (Footscray JUST) and Andrew Zinni (Brunswick Juventus).

The Socceroos fared poorly in their three-match series against Czechoslovakia, drawing the first game 1-1 in Melbourne then losing 1-0 in Adelaide and 3-0 in Sydney, but Arok wasn't overly concerned.

"With more caution we would have had better results against the Czechs but we were trying a few different things. We wanted to show more attacking flair and have a go at them," said Arok.

"We had a rather unfortunate cocktail of old and young players. We wanted to get some understanding into this new team, after all, about six established players had withdrawn from the team."

Australia then went on to win the Trans Tasman Cup against New Zealand and the Ampol Cup against China.

"The Czechs clearly were much stronger than either New Zealand or China, but our new team has plenty of players hungry to prove themselves at international level, which is a good thing. Last year gave us a new lease of life and we have a fast and aggressive team which has displayed an attacking mood. If this team can maintain a high level of competitiveness and attacking flair then we definitely are on the right track."

Arok's optimism will be put to the test later this year when the Socceroos square up to Taiwan and Papua New Guinea in the preliminary qualifying games for the 1988 Olympics. The Socceroos will enter that series as a warm favorite and should qualify for the final four-nation qualifying showdown early next year.

"I expect Israel, New Zealand and perhaps Taiwan as the second-placed nation in our first qualifying series to qualify for the final series next year," said Arok.

The national team boss already has mapped out a program designed to turn his men into a hardened team unit. Scottish giant, Glasgow Celtic seems certain to tour this June and the Socceroos have accepted an invitation to participate, during the same month, in a major international tournament in South Korea.

"The tournament in South Korea will give us a great understanding of what it is like to play in a hostile environment. That is vital."

The Socceroos will attempt to maintain their grip on the Trans Tasman and Ampol Cups later this year, then Arok plans to take his men on an extended tour of South America starting in December.

"I think that after another 20 internationals with these players we will have a very, very capable side."

"The degree of success we earned in our attempt to qualify for last year's World Cup Finals has set new standards for the national team. No longer can we take any game lightly. The Australian national team must always be highly competitive and must be seen as a winner."

● Frank Arok

WHEN YOUR CLUB, TEAM OR SCHOOL IS LOOKING FOR A NEW SET OF SOCCER SHIRTS, SHORTS, SOCKS, OR CLUB JACKETS, MAKE SURE YOU CHECK OUT THE ATTACK SPORTS CATALOGUE AT YOUR NEAREST SPORTS STORE, AUSTRALIA WIDE.

OUR FULL COLOR BOOKLET ILLUSTRATES THE LARGEST RANGE OF STYLE AND COLOR COMBINATIONS AVAILABLE ANYWHERE IN AUSTRALIA.

THE SYMBOL OF INTEGRITY

In soccer shirts alone we've got four fabrics to choose from, including 12 colors of PIN STRIPES, 16 colors in LIGHTWEIGHT SHEEN, and our rugged CHAMPIONSHIP QUALITY.

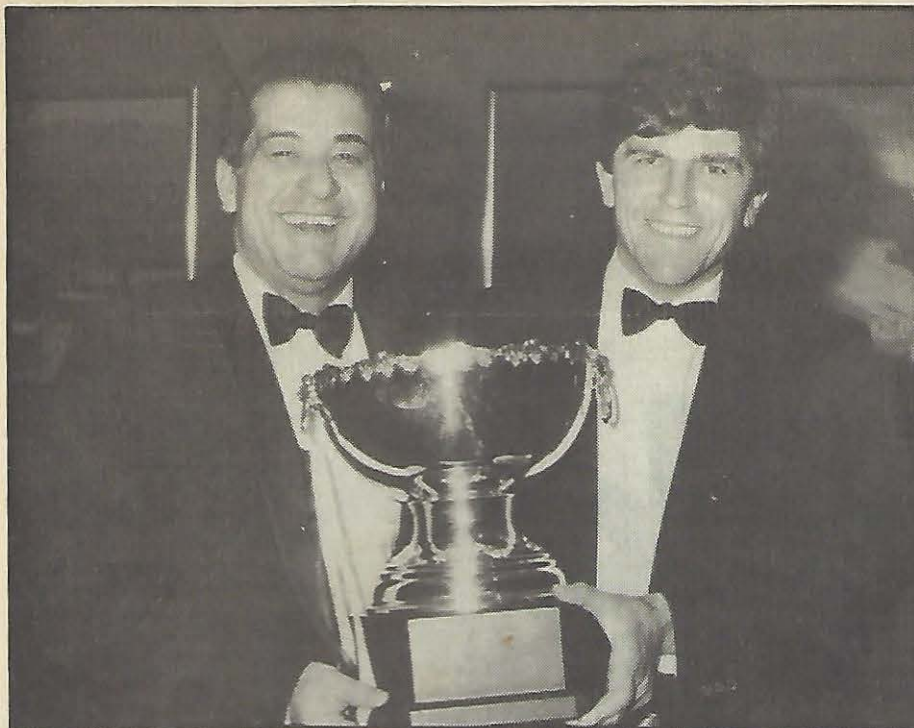

Our quality and value for money should allow you to budget for up to four seasons of wear with our sets of shirts. That has got to make sense and improve your clubs finances also.

We've got the RIGHT QUALITY, the RIGHT PRICE, and above all the RIGHT DELIVERY-FAST! We've also got proven reliability and integrity which is why ATTACK shirts have been the main feature on Australian Soccer Pitches for longer than we care to remember.

ATTACK SPORTS, ALBURY, N.S.W.

AVAILABLE AT ALL LEADING SPORTS STORES THROUGHOUT AUSTRALIA

● Paul Trimboli — set up the second AIS goal in the 1986 national youth final.

AIS team clinches youth title

AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE OF SPORT 3 (Polak 24th, Foster 40th, 69th) GEORGE CROSS 0. National Youth Final at Olympic Park No. 1. Crowd: about 1,200. Caution: J. Markovski (GC). Referee: Allan Kibbler 8.

AIS: Gunning 7 (inj. Mower 69th) — Healy 7 (R. Runje 75th), Cummings 7, Reynolds 7, G. Naven 8 — Polak 9, Koch 8 — T. Mullen 8 (T. Grbac 75th), Foster 9, Trimboli 8, van Blerk 8. Coach: Jim Shoulder.

GEORGE CROSS: Keogh 7 — Napoli 7, Marth 6, T. Markovski 7, Malovic 6 — Kyriazopoulos 6, Falzon 6 (Maticovski 77th), Magarelli 6 (Georgievski 75th), J. Markovski 6 — B. Bozinovski 7, Jankulovski 7. Coach: Jimmy Rooney.

The Australian Institute of Sport team completely destroyed George Cross's hopes of winning the National Youth Final with a classy display.

The AIS team used just two players in midfield — Jason Polak and John Koch — and played with two wide men up front — Tim Mullen and Jason van Blerk.

That tactic stretched Cross at the back. In the 24th minute, Polak ran onto a Paul Foster pass, rounded a defender, then slotted the ball low past Sean Keogh to open the scoring.

The AIS lads went further ahead five minutes before the interval. Paul Trimboli got to the back line then sent over a superb far post chip, presenting Foster with a simple header and Foster made no mistake.

Early in the second half, Cross staged a mini revival and in the 60th minute created its best chance but Tom Markovski headed wide.

Nine minutes later, the final was over. A superb piece of interpassing by the AIS ended with Trimboli releasing Foster whose first time, dipping shot flashed over Keogh's head and into the back of the net to make it 3-0.

NSL SCORERS LIST

● Gary Cole

● John Kosmina

Graham Arnold (Sydney Croatia), the 1986 NSL top scorer, surged from 66th to 28th position among the all-time top NSL marksmen but still is 90 goals behind Gary Cole (Makedonia) who heads the list with 131.

The list takes into account goals scored in NSL, National Cup and the old top four (1978-81) series which was played separately to the league championship. Goals in the top five series of 1984, 1985 and 1986 have been included merely as league goals, as these finals series were part of the championship programme.

Mark Jankovics of Marconi reached the 100-goal mark in league goals alone and has another 10 in Cup and top-four series, leaving him in third place overall.

Second-placed John Kosmina (now Sydney Olympic) narrowed the gap between him and Cole from 10 goals at the end of 1985 to six goals at the end of 1986. Kosmina remains the leader on NSL goals alone, five ahead of Cole.

Doug Brown's transfer from SM-Hellas to Heidelberg gave his scoring rate a boost and with 10 goals in 1986, he overtook Ken Boden to move into fourth place with 80 goals.

Gary Ward (Adelaide Hellas) and David Lowe (marconi) climbed from 20th and 21st to 14th and 15th respectively.

Charley Villani (Adelaide Juventus) also climbed significantly, from 39th to 22nd.

Here is the list of NSL goalscorers up to the end of the 1986 season:

● Adelaide Juventus's Aurelio Vidmar (left) is about to join the celebrations between Joe Mullen and Charley Villani (No. 8) after Villani's goal in the second leg of the national final against Sydney Olympic.

VILLANI TAKES JUVE TO TITLE

Charley Villani was the undisputed hero of Adelaide Juventus after scoring the best goal of the match and creating another for Steve Maxwell, to spearhead "Juve" to an easy win over Sydney Olympic in the second leg of the 1986 National Final.

Adelaide Juventus came to Parramatta 0-1 down after the first leg in Adelaide and looked in all sorts of trouble in trying to cope with Olympic's sustained attack in the opening 15-20 minutes.

Led by the evergreen Buggy Nyskohus and the tall Neville Flounders, Juve survived, then produced the flowing style of football for which it is renowned.

It was Villani who came to the fore in those crucial minutes when the visitors went two up before the break. Maxwell was brought down by Manny Spanoudakis after 31 minutes and Sergio Melta made no mistake from the penalty spot.

With one minute left before the break, Villani took the ball to the edge of his own penalty area and strolled past a few Olympic players before pushing it forward to Maxwell. Martyn Rogers missed with an attempted tackle, leaving Maxwell to round the keeper and score.

Two up at half time and playing with poise, Juventus never looked back.

Villani's free header after only two minutes play in the second half had everyone beaten but it sailed past the upright. Then came Paul Shillabeer with Gary Meier to beat him 55th but his shot from an angle also missed.

Villani raced into the box to face Meier in the 58th. Coady's tackle brought Villani down but also scooped the ball to Meier.

It was champagne football by Juventus, and it led to another superb goal. Villani strolled past opponents to face Meier before scoring with ease in the 59th minute.

Villani and his Juve team-mates celebrated, with Olympic appearing to be well beaten.

Then came an unfortunate incident, with Marshall Soper and Joe Mullen tangling near the touch line. Mullen brought Soper down and the referee awarded Sydney Olympic a free kick. Soper obviously not satisfied, threw the ball at Mullen and then struck Mullen to the ground.

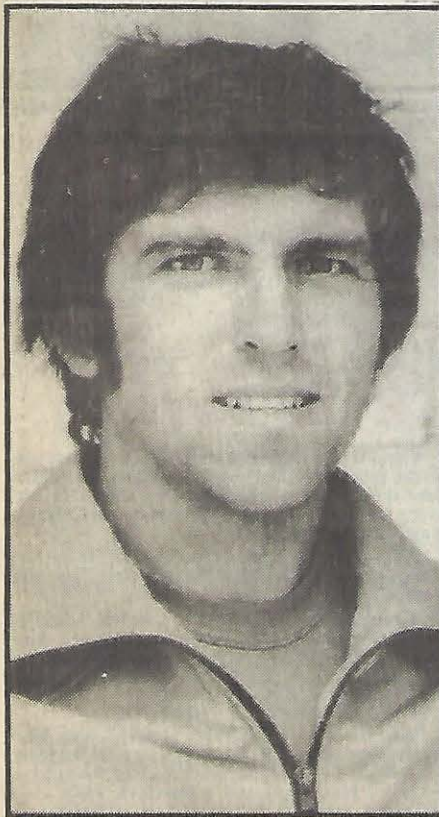

There was no hesitation by Don Campbell who sent Soper in for an early shower, while Mullen got what he deserved — a yellow card.

Campbell showed his strength and did what he had to, no more and no less, despite the presence of 14,000 Olympic fans.

And when most believed that the absence of Soper was going to benefit Juventus, things turned sour for the visitors. Olympic, with 10 players looked far more competitive and came at Juventus with all guns firing. Terry Patalis came on for Mike Coady to add strength to the forward line and suddenly Juve started to struggle at the back.

A defensive error allowed Stuart Johnstone to pull one back for Olympic in the 66th.

Olympic's effort in the closing stages allowed Juve to counter swiftly and efficiently and had Juve's strikers exploited their chances, the result would have been an embarrassment for the home side.

Much credit must go to Zoran Matic, Juve's coach who always believed his team would win; "In Adelaide we played poorly because of the state of the pitch. It suited Olympic's bustling style of play. On this turf at Parramatta Stadium, there was no way we could lose," said an elated Matic after the game. Here are all the NSL finals details:

Farina wins it for Hakoah!

Nanda Cup Final drama of the highest magnitude was played out at the brightly lit Hindmarsh Stadium on a Wednesday night last September when Socceroo striker Frank Farina steered Sydney City Hakoah to a great comeback with two fine extra-time goals.

With Adelaide Hellas's hopes of qualifying for the revamped 14-team NSL in 1987 in tatters, the local outfit looked to the 1986 Nanda Cup Final to salvage some glory from an otherwise disappointing season.

Just when this fiercely fought final seemed certain to be decided on penalty kicks, fighting Farina struck with all the venom of a cobra to score twice in a thrilling four-minute burst.

Up until then, Hellas had every reason to believe that it had won the $70,000 Cup series.

The home side took a deserved lead in the 49th minute after a sweeping move as George Konstandopoulos found Lou Hristodoulou and the Youth Socceroo slipped the ball past Brett Hughes in the Sydney City Hakoah goal.

John Kosmina's equaliser in the 61st minute, as he hammered the ball into the roof of the net from the apex of the six-metre box, provided a sweet return to his old home ground.

But Hristodoulou proved that youth could have its fling as he notched his second goal of the final to regain the lead for Hellas during extra time.

With limbs aching and lungs bursting only a champion team, led by a champion, could stage the type of grandstand finish like that produced by Farina.

It was a comeback to end all comebacks and gallant Hellas was left to lament its second Cup Final loss in five years.

Meanwhile, Hakoah at last could celebrate a Cup Final triumph — its first in a decade of endeavor.

Here are all the details of the 1986 Nanda Cup:

CROYDON STILL THE BEST

Croydon reinforced its standing as the most powerful outfit in the Victorian State League by winning the 1986 championship, its second successive triumph, and also clinching the 1986 State League Cup, the first time that the club had won that honor.

Croydon finished the league season too powerfully for challengers Frankston Pines, Box Hill and St. Albans Dinamo.

At one stage, Springvale City, which failed to finish in the top four, had a five-point lead in the race for the title but its hopes were dashed when goalkeeper Bill Whiteside broke his ankle and incurred ligament damage against Caulfield with seven games to go.

But you can't take anything away from the men of Croydon and coach Peter Ollerton. The experience of Peter Blasby, Jim O'Reilly, Jim Tansey, Graham French and Dave Brogan coupled with the outstanding disposal and vision of midfielder Jim MacLean, the aggressive running of Andy Humble, the man marking ability of Mark Brown, the skill of Alex

Livingstone and the consistency of players such as Steve Beech and Matt McDonald, enabled Croydon to withstand every challenge to its championship crown.

Croydon blitzed Pines in the final of the State League Cup, running out a comfortable 4-1 victor.

Springvale blows a five-point lead

Striker Humble was the chief executioner with three goals but Pines also were mauled in mid-field, with Brogan and Livingstone excelling.

Green Gully won the Ricoh Dockerty Cup for the third time. Coach Gus Macleod had figured prominently in Gully's 1981 and 1982 triumphs and he also coached Fawkner to success in the 1984 Dockerty Cup.

Preston Makedonia was Gully's victim in last year's final. Makedonia hit the front from a penalty converted by Gary Cole in the 28th minute but Gully hit back hard in the second half, its goals coming from Costa Theodosopoulos — a diving header — and Danny Ward — a first time shot from a Tommy Cumming pass.

Prahran Celtic staged a remarkable comeback to win the Armstrong Cup Final 3-2 against more fancied Frankston Pines.

Pines were 2-0 up at half time but Celtic's comeback started in the 50th minute when John McDade scored from close range following a Fernandez shot which struck the post. McDade struck again in the 82nd minute and the match was forced into extra time.

Celtic simply refused to lie down. In the 105th minute its tremendous character and competitiveness was rewarded when substitute Peter McCaffrey's shot hit the post and rolled agonisingly across the goal line before going in.

Goals from Jim Campbell and Luka Bonacic took Melbourne Croatia to a 2-1 win over Heidelberg in the final of the 1986 Buffalo Gold Cup.

The following week, Croatia squared up to sister club Sydney Croatia in the final of the inaugural Ansett Challenge Shield. The Melbourne club proved far too strong, winning 3-1.

Sydney Croatia got off to a flying start with a stunning long range drive from Zarko Odzakov but after Bonacic levelled the scores by sidefooting home a Steve Gojevic cross in the 14th minute, Melbourne Croatia never looked back and goals from Josip Biskic and Ante Ljubic completed a superb display.

STIRTON THE GOALS KING

Morwell Falcons striker Ian Stirton was the leading scorer in the 1986 Victorian State League.

Stirton won $400 from Pakenham Mitsubishi, sponsors of 'Soccer Action's' Top Scorer award.

Stirton is a former Glasgow Rangers and Doveton striker and is one of the finest finishers in State League.

He was plagued by a knee injury in the back half of the 1986 season yet still was able to notch 20 goals, six more than nearest challenger Graham French, leading State League scorer in 1985.

St Albans Dinamo striker Dennis Morovic scored 11 goals, an outstanding feat from a man who didn't even reach the halfway mark of the season as he had to go overseas. What a pity that Morovic didn't play a full season. His race for leading scorer's honors with Stirton would have been well worth watching.

Here are all of last year's Victorian State League scorers:

- 20 — Stirton (Morwell)
- 14 — French (Croydon)
- 13 — Zemunik (Caulfield)
- 12 — Dick (Pines), Brogan, Humble (Croydon), Griffin (Box Hill)
- 11 — Morovic (Dinamo)
- 10 — Storm (Wilhelmina), Cozzella (Fawkner)
- 9 — McGuinness (Suburbs), MacLean (Croydon)
- 8 — Tuffield (Fawkner), Toal (Northcote)

● Ian Stirton.

- 7 — P Constantinou (Northcote), J Nelson (Springvale), Smallman (Suburbs)
- 6 — L Theodosopoulos (Melbourne), Verechia (Morwell), House (Springvale), Carfora (Thomastown)

● Alex Dick of Frankston Pines, with his 1986 Rothmans Medal.

First for Dick, Pines

Almost a year after telling his coach to "stick it up his arse" Alex Dick won the 1986 Victorian Rothmans Medal.

Dick became the first Frankston Pines player to win Victorian soccer's most prestigious player award.

Dick's win, announced at a gala presentation night at Melbourne's Southern Cross hotel, was a triumph for the working class people who support Pines and Dick made the most of the presentation of the medal by federal Opposition leader John Howard.

"Howard said to me that he likes being next to winners and I told him that he probably will never know what the feeling really is like," said Dick.

Dick, 26, was born in Edinburgh in Scotland. He played for the Edinburgh schoolboys, Hutchison Vale, St. Ninian's Boys Club and Rob Roy before coming to Australia in 1981.

He played for Grange Thistle and Olympic in Queensland before joining Pines for the 1984 season.

Dick polled 38 votes to win the Rothmans Medal, 14 more than his nearest rival, Mark Bakker of Ringwood Wilhelmina. It was one of the most comprehensive winning margins since the introduction of the medal in 1971.

Here are all the voting details for the 1986 Victorian Rothmans Medal. An asterisk denotes players who were sent off and therefore were ineligible to win the award:

It's Dick again!

Alex Dick of Frankston Pines polled 29 votes to win the 1986 Bill Fleming Medal by five votes from Emil Bruns of Morwell Falcons and Danny Zemunik of Caulfield.

The Bill Fleming Medal is voted on by a panel of Victorian soccer writers. Each panelist votes on a 6-5-4-3-2-1 basis and the votes are tallied by Victorian Soccer Federation executive director George Wallace.

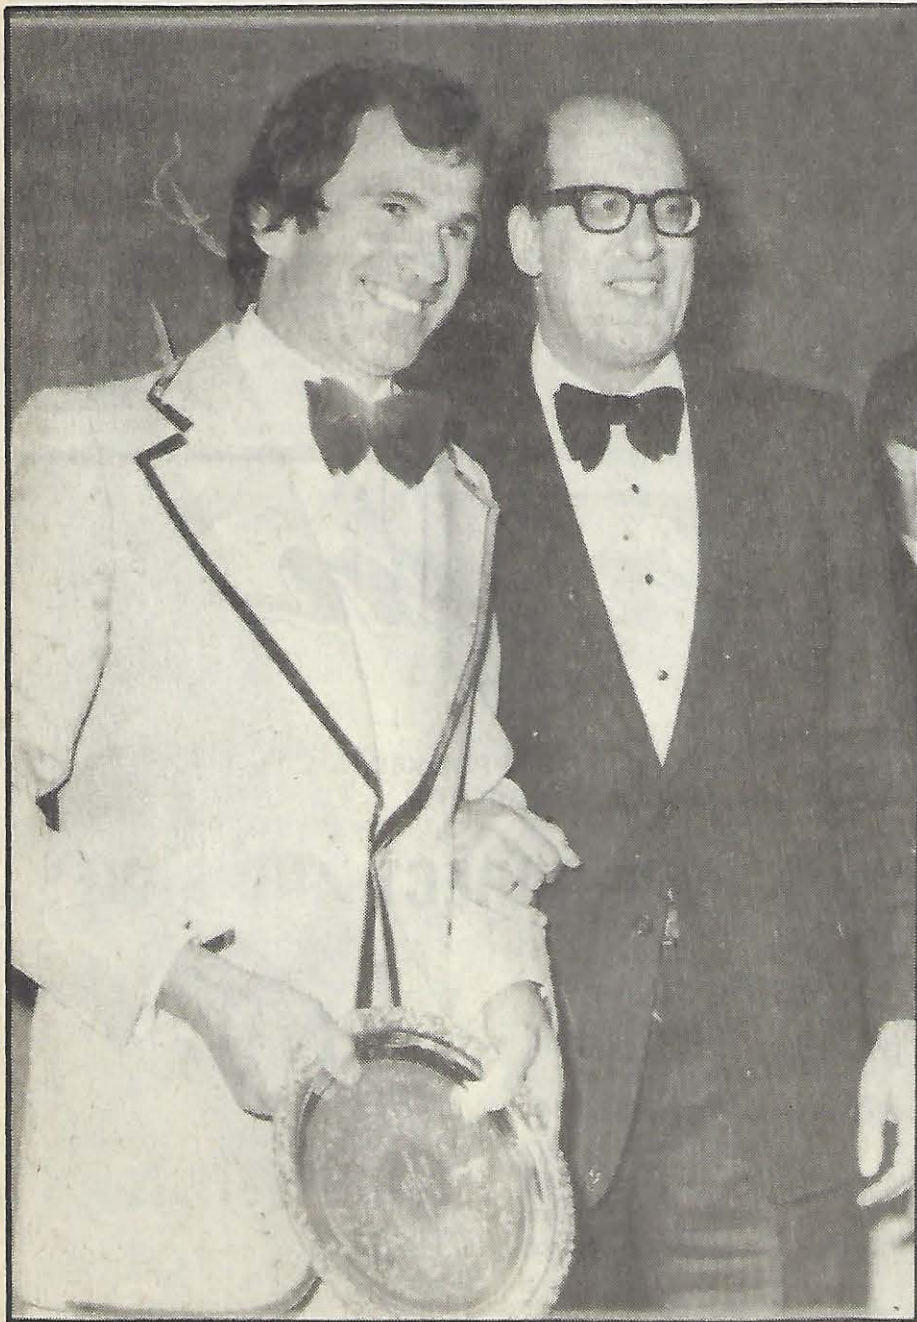

"My heart just about dropped down to my knees when my name was read out. I was waiting for Rob Krajacic's name or Danny Zemunik's name to be called and I was completely taken by surprise when they announced that I was the winner," said Dick.

The Bill Fleming Medal is the major award announced at the annual awards night conducted by the Victorian branch of the Australian Soccer Press Association.

Dragoslav Sekularac of Footscray JUST won the Victorian Coach of the Year award by a huge margin. He was one of just two nominations for the honor. John Gardiner of George Cross was the other nominee.

Alan Hunter of Heidelberg won the Victorian NSL Player of the Year award. His team mate, Theo Selemidis, Angie Postecoglou of South Melbourne Hellas and Tommy Cumming of Green Gully were joint runners-up.

● The great Frank Micic (left) with then president of Footscray JUST, Tony Kovac, after Micic had won the 1973 Bill Fleming Medal.

Postecoglou won the Under 21 Player of the Year award with 18 votes, five more than Ernie Tapai of JUST. Heidelberg's Peter Tsolakakis was third.

The Victorian League Player of the Year, a new award, was Andy Bozikas of Bulleen.

Chris Bambridge won the Referee of the Year award by polling 10 votes, seven more than Dennis Voutsinas. Torben Sorenson polled one vote.

The Team of the Year was: Oliver (Heidelberg) — James (George Cross), Hunter, Selemidis (Heidelberg), Postecoglou (Hellas) — Stosic (JUST), Wade (Juventus), Tapai (JUST), Crainie (Hellas) — Cumming (Green Gully), Gilder (George Cross). Reserves: Dobson (Makedonia), Latif (JUST), Zinni (Juventus).

Picioane pips Vasic; Tront, Forsyth tops

It was a memorable 1986 season for the "old heads" in Victoria's lower leagues with former JUST stars Dragan Vasic and Joe Picioane; ex-Mooroolbark, Croatia and State team midfielder Joe Tront; and former Croydon striker Rob Forsyth figuring prominently in the leading scorer and best and fairest charts.

Vasic and Picioane, both of Royal Richmond, were the Victorian League Second Division's leading scorer and best and fairest winner respectively.

Vasic almost made it a memorable double. He won the leading scorer's honors then tied with Picioane for the best and fairest player award only to lose on a countback.

Tront, with 20 votes, won the Victorian League Third Division best and fairest award by two votes from Ortiz of Bell Park.

Here are the leading scorers charts in the Victorian Leagues and the first three place-getters in the best and fairest awards in the Victorian, Provisional and Amateur Leagues:

North Star grabs title

The 1986 season saw the closest and most exciting ever finish to the XXXX State League.

Although North Star and Easts raced to an early lead it was Coalstars who were perched on top of the ladder at the halfway mark.

Mt Gravatt was the best performed team in the second round of the league season but it was Coalstars and North Star who fought out the honors with a thrilling final round clash which saw North Star clinch the title and the club championship.

The 1986 season provided a feast of good football and although it was sad to see founder members Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions drop out of the National League, Queensland federation president Ian Brusasco is very optimistic about the prospects of soccer in his State in 1987.

"The two Queensland NSL clubs have been welcomed back to our thriving XXXX League and that can only make for exciting soccer ahead," said Brusasco.

"We are at a very important stage of development within our game and within the whole spectrum of Queensland sport. While confusion reigns in other codes over possible relocations and interstate competitions, it is vital soccer presents an image of stability.

"In 1987 we find ourselves in a position to decide our own destiny. We can plan for the short and long terms and we will be able to exhibit a definite sense of direction."

Coalstars turned the tables on North Star by winning the XXXX League Grand Final 2-1. Coalstars goals came from Penman and Ogden while Swan scored for North Star.

Rochdale Rovers and Acacia Ridge drew 0-0 in the Intermediate League Grand Final but the replay saw Rochdale triumph 1-0 with a goal by Ireland.

The Amateur Division One Grand Final was won by Nerang which defeated Inala City 2-1. Curtis and Clark scored for Nerang while Inala's scorer was Ryan.

● Steve Jackson

Steve Jackson wins '86 Press award

Classy Brisbane Lions sweeper Steve Jackson won the 1986 Player of the Year award conducted by the Queensland branch of the Australian Soccer Press Association.

Jackson's consistency was highlighted by his man-of-the-match award when Queensland defeated NSW in their annual interstate clash.

Coalstars' Brian Styles was named Coach of the Year after guiding his club to success in the Ampol Cup and the Grand Final and missing out on the premiership by just one point.

Coalstars scored a double when teenage central defender Alan McFarlane was named Rookie of the Year.

Dave Nugent was named the season's outstanding referee and former FIFA referee Des Miles earned the Reg Erskine Memorial Award for services to soccer.

QSF president Ian Brusasco received a special award to mark his 25-year association with the code.

Jason Polak, John Koch and Russell Stewart were acknowledged for their national representative displays in 1986.

Cooper wins it for Queensland

Queensland levelled the tally against NSW with a thrilling 1-0 win in the 75th interstate clash at Perry Park in June last year.

Although NSW still holds a 47-20 series lead in the all-time count since interstate matches began in 1890, the score is 2-2 since the interstate series was revived in 1983.

And that is a tribute to State coach Bruce Stowell whose efforts with Queensland at all levels are making him one of the most successful State coaches ever.

While some tried to discredit Queensland's 1983 win over NSW, saying that NSW fielded a second-string side, there could be no questioning the calibre of last year's success.

Every player in the NSW squad had represented

Australia at either youth or senior level and five players were in the Socceroo squad which performed so creditably against Scotland in their World Cup qualifying clashes late in 1985.

Queensland's victory was carved out with a great deal of sweat and commitment and when Kieran Cooper put away the only goal of the game in the 82nd minute, justice was done.

Details:

QUEENSLAND 1 (Cooper 82nd) NEW SOUTH WALES 0. Interstate clash at Perry Park. Crowd: 4,441. Referee: Alan Kibbler.

Marsh makes it three for Thistle

Fullback Keith Marsh maintained Grange Thistle's excellent record in Queensland soccer's most prestigious award when he won the 1986 Rothmans Medal.

The 23-year-old became the third Grange Thistle player to win the award, following in the footsteps of Steve Dolan (1979) and Ken Swan (1983). Thistle now has produced more Rothmans Medal winners than any other club.

Marsh polled 21 votes to defeat the XXXX League's top scorers, Jim McDonagh of Easts and Calvin Daunt of Taringa, who both polled 18 votes.

The leading votegetters were:

- 21 — Marsh (Grange)
- 18 — McDonagh (Easts), Daunt (Taringa)
- 16 — Cernaka (Olympic)
- 15 — Kirsopp (Mt. Gravatt), Fagan (North Star)

● Keith Marsh

- 14 — Brusasco (Coaststars)
- 12 — Wheeler (Coaststars)
- 11 — Dann (Ipswich), Tripp (North Star)

McDonagh, Daunt in a tie

Jim McDonagh of Eastern Suburbs and Calvin Daunt of Taringa Rovers, former team mates at Brisbane Lions, were the joint leading scorers in the 1986 XXXX League.

McDonagh was awarded the prize, a weekend for two at the Rocks Resort courtesy of Barrie Roberts, for scoring a two-goal-a-match tally on three occasions to Daunt's one.

The leading scorers were:

- 12 — McDonagh (Easts), Daunt (Taringa)
- 11 — Redmond (Easts)
- 10 — Kitching (Ipswich), Brusasco (Coaststars), McGregor (Lions)
- 9 — Kirsopp (Mt. Gravatt), Williamson (North Star), Fagan (Olympic)
- 8 — Mulvey (Taringa)
- 6 — Fagan (North Star), Marley (North Star), Wheeler (Coaststars)

Polak, Koch lead the way

Queensland junior soccer had another big season in 1986 and could take pride in seeing a number of its young products winning their way into Australian squads.

Jason Polak and John Koch, ex-Brisbane North players, were among the stars of the Australian youth team's successful three-match series against Czechoslovakia.

And country players Darren Freiberg and Guy Rigby were selected in the Australian under 16 squad coached by Queensland's director of coaching, Bruce Stowell.

Here is a summary of the 1986 junior representative scene:

NINE ROOS

Queensland's women did their State proud with nine girls being selected in the Australian squad after the 1986 national titles.

They were: Kaye O'Sullivan, Teri McQueen, Lyn Spencer, Joanne Millman, Kerry Millman, Leanne Priestley, Donna Fredrickson, Michelle Sawyers and Sue Monteath.

McQueen, Joanne Millman, Priestley and Monteath also were in the Australian squad which toured New Zealand early last year.

The 1986 Queensland women's squad was: Sue Bubeck, Kaye O'Sullivan, Moana Brecklemans, Teri McQueen, Michelle Sawyers, Joanne Millman, Maria Rodgers, Kerry Millman, Lyn Spencer, Kaylene Janssen, Di Crouchen, Donna Fredrickson, Connie Burns, Gayle Schneider, Klara Szaro, Leonne Yoh Yeh, Stephanie McMahon, Leanne Preissetley.

Queensland maintained its fine record at the national titles by finishing second to NSW. The Maroon girls haven't finished lower than second at the past five national titles.

Fredrickson, from Mackay, was the leading scorer at the titles with six goals.

Locally, Brisbane won the State titles, downing Toowoomba 8-0 in the Grand Final. In club competition, the Grand Final results were: Division One: Easts 3 Coalstars 0; Division Two: North Star 2 Queensland under 15 0; Division Three: Souths 3 Capalaba 0; Division Four: Moggill 1 Toowong 0.

By ALEX VESIC

Melita Eagles won the 1986 NSW Skypak League Premiership and Sutherland took out the Grand Final.

But State League clubs such as Melita and Sutherland received a poor return for their investment as promotion from State League to the National League wasn't on last year.

Melita and Sutherland, along with the likes of Rockdale Illinden, Manly Warringah and Kuringai, can look forward to far stiffer competition in the race for State League honors this season.

That's because of the presence of Canterbury, Newcastle Rosebud, Canberra, Inter Monaro, Blacktown and Wollongong, clubs dumped from the NSL at the end of last year.

That's going to make one of Australian soccer's best State League competitions even better.

Melita certainly had a marvellous 1986 season. It won the Premiership in First and Second Grades, and the Championship in Second and Third Grades. Sutherland took out the Premiership in Third Grade, and, of course, the First Grade Grand Final.

Melita had one of the best balanced outfits in State League and players of the quality of Farrugia, Wilson, Tredinnick and Williams were the backbone of the team. And Melita was guided by Dennis Hoggart, NSW State League Coach of the Year for 1986.

Under Hoggart's guidance, Melita played an effective and enjoyable style of soccer and was the great entertainer of 1986.

Sutherland started last season slowly but finished on a high note by winning the Grand Final in First Grade. Melita was Sutherland's victim in the final and a stunning second-half goal spree turned a 1-0 halftime deficit into a convincing 3-1 win.

Greg Lerond was the man who tore Melita apart but things looked good for the Maltese-backed club when Ray Farrugia struck a fierce, long-range drive to put Melita ahead in the 15th minute.

Sutherland hit back in the 57th minute when Lerond charged down the left and sent in a low cross. Scott Hughes laid the ball on for Daryl Sharp to score from close range.

Sutherland was rewarded for its sustained pressure when Lerond again made a good break down the left. His far post cross to Meades was headed back across goal to Hughes and he made it 2-1. That was in the 71st minute.

In the 82nd minute, the final nail was driven into Melita's coffin.

Hughes was brought down and took the resultant penalty himself, converting with ease to round off a tremendous display by the Sutherland Sharks.

Rockdale Illinden boasted some of the classiest players in the Skypak League in 1986. Its Yugoslav imports, Tortevski and Nasteviski, clearly stood out.

Wollongong Macedonia, Kuringai, Manly Warringah and Uruguayan Auburn must rate their efforts last season as fairly respectable, particularly Wollongong Macedonia, the league's newcomer.

Many fine players contributed to the success of these clubs: Lacey, Bertram, Watson and Bass for Kuringai; Wellbourne, B. Robinson, Muhlbauer and Bingham for Macedonia; Dick, Dean, Stuart and Campbell for Manly and Woods, Rosano and O'Donnell for Uruguayan.

Warringah Freshwater was the surprise packet of 1986. Most critics tipped the club for the wooden spoon even before the league season started but Freshwater earned a middle-of-the-table finish despite having player problems for most of the year.

Polonia, Avala, Fairy Meadow and Penrith must be bitterly disappointed with their 1986 performances. They filled the last four spots in the league and were relegated to make way for the teams coming from National League.

It is important to note that on-field success is generated not only by the playing and coaching staff but also by the administration. Not surprisingly then, Melita and Sutherland showed that they had able and enthusiastic administrators.

Laurie Dimech, Sam Vella and Charlie Mifsud did a great job for Melita last year. Peter Grey, Greg Lerond and Geoff Ball did likewise for Sutherland.

Ray Farrugia wins 'Soccer Action' best player award

Ray Farrugia, Melita's midfield maestro, won 'Soccer Action's' inaugural NSW State League Player of the Year award by one point from Uruguayan Auburn's Brett Woods, the 1986 Rothmans Medal winner.

Some 200 guests crammed into the Fraternity Bowling and Recreation Club in Fairy Meadow to honor the winners in various categories.

Farrugia received a return ticket to Europe from Air Malta for being the Player of the Year. He also was presented with a plaque from 'Soccer Action'.

To cap a memorable night for Farrugia, he also received a 'Soccer Action' medallion for being selected in its NSW State League Team of the Year.

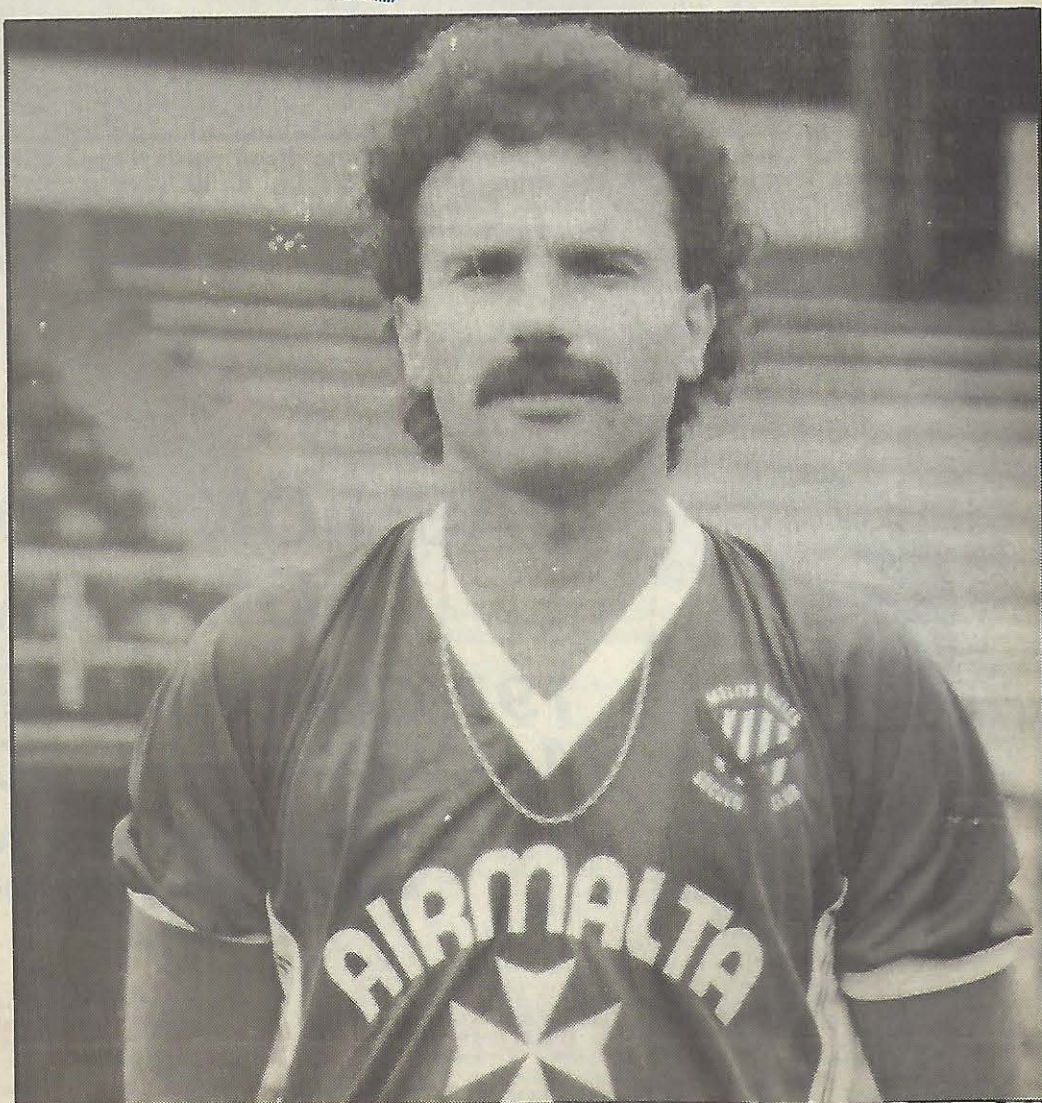

Anthony Wellbourne of Wollongong Macedonia won the Under 21 Player of the Year award with 21 points, two ahead of Aytec Genc of Uruguayan Auburn. Anselmo Pagazzo, president of the Fraternity Bowling and Recreation Club, presented young Wellbourne with $300 from the Fraternity Club and a plaque from 'Soccer Action' as well as a medallion for making the Team of the Year.

Zlatko Nastevski of Rockdale Ilinden, with his fine tally of 22 league goals, won the Top Goalscorer's award.

He received a plaque from 'Soccer Action' as well as a medallion for making the Team of the Year. He also received a $500 cheque from Inway Pty. Ltd., the Caltex service station in North Wollongong. Owner Mick Marjanovic presented Nastevski with his award.

Dennis Hoggart, coach of Melita Eagles, won the Coach of the Year award with 23 votes. Ilija Takac of Rockdale Ilinden was runner-up and John Lavin of Sutherland finished third.

Hoggart received a $200 cheque from Tim Bradhurst, area manager of Caltex in Wollongong.

WOODS PIPS BERRINGER

Brett Woods, the 23-year-old defender from Uruguayan Auburn, won the 1986 NSW Rothmans Medal at a function held at the Hilton Hotel.

In a nail-biting finish, Woods pipped Larry Berringer of Fairy Meadow by one point and Billy Pilovski of Rockdale Ilinden by two points.

Woods, formerly of Sydney Croatia, was a popular winner. He first was introduced to Rothmans Medal competition at 15 years old and polled two votes. That was in 1978.

A few years later Woods won the Australian Soccer Press Association (NSW branch) Under 21 Player of the Year award but he wasn't even at the Journalist's Club to receive his trophy!

"I was furious with one of the Croatia officials who was supposed to inform me of the function held at the Journalist Club. He told me that I was invited to some function but could not give me the details. I stayed at training that night and the following day I found out that I had won the Under 21 award.

"If I had that official near me then I would have expressed my annoyance with more than just words.

"However, this award makes up for all my disappointments. It is the greatest honor I have ever won and I'll cherish this moment for the rest of my life. I sympathise with Larry and Billy though."

Here are all the Rothmans Medal votes:

26 — B. Woods (Uruguayan-Auburn).

25 — L. Beringer (Fairy Meadow).

24 — B. Pilovski (Rockdale).

17 — R. Filipovic (Avala), H. Sobczyk (Polonia).

● LAID-BACK HERO, Tommy McColl, signs autographs on the Socceroos' return from their unbeaten 1967 tour of Asia, during which they won a major tournament in Vietnam. McColl played for Juventus (Vic) and represented Australia 20 times.

BLASTS FROM THE PAST

● CHARLIE GEORGE, superstar of Arsenal and Derby County, tangles with Arthur Xanthopoulos of South Melbourne Hellas while guesting for St. George Budapest at Middle Park in 1977. Malcolm Macdonald played for Hellas in that match, which St. George won 3-2 in front of 14,000 people. Scorers were Rudi Gnani, Mark Jankovics and Charlie George for St. George, and Macdonald scored both goals for Hellas. Best players were Macdonald, Billy Rogers, Mike Pye and Xanthopoulos for Hellas, and Rob O'Shea, Gnani, Phil O'Connor and Charlie George for St. George.

White Eagles took out the 1986 Cadbury State League title on the last day of the Tasmanian league season when they beat the reigning champion, Juventus-Pioneer, 3-0.

Croatia-Glenorchy finished second when it lost 2-4 to Olympia-WPL on the same day, having needed only a draw to win the title.

The two results mirrored accurately the trends that had been evident throughout the 1986 season.

White Eagles were the most attack-minded team in the league and relied heavily on goalkeeper Peter Groenewoud to hold things together at the back.

Caledonians must still be rueing the day they allowed the Australian schoolboy international to leave and join Eagles without having played a senior game for the club.

Groenewoud made several crucial saves to keep his side in the game against Juventus before Richard Leszczynski hit a hat-trick to give Eagles both points.

The three goals put him level on 23 goals with Juventus's John Broadhouse, who was kept scoreless in this match, and the pair finished as the league's joint top scorers.

Croatia failed yet again at the last hurdle for a number of reasons.

The side was unreliable in attack, always missing numerous chances, while the absence of coach David Crosson in defence may well have been the straw that broke the camel's back.

Crosson, the ex-Newcastle United (England) player, refused to play for virtually the entire season. He is an accomplished player and his presence would have been worth a number of points during the season.

Olympia-WPL had a mixed season under new coach Ken Morton, finishing third in the league but winning the Cadbury Jubilee Trophy in the top-four grand final.

Olympia regularly beat the other top teams but invariably stumbled against the bottom sides and this cost it the title.

Morton, who had coached Juventus to the previous three league titles, found life a little more difficult at a club which didn't boast the best players in the league.

Juventus-Pioneer finished a disappointing fourth but it could not realistically hope to have retained the title after losing several key figures, including player-coach Morton and goalkeeper Steve Craven.

Juventus did win the pre-season cup, however, John Broadhouse salvaged some pride by finishing as the league's equal top scorer, and defender Dominic Longo was selected in the Australian under-16 side.

Caledonians never were going to win the title because they had the worst defence in the league, but they never were going to be relegated, either, because they had a better strike-force than the three teams below them in the standings.

A disastrous run of defeats (they lost seven matches on the trot in the last round) cost them a place in the top-four.

Howrah surprised a lot of people by surviving in its first season in the top flight.

It was touch-and-go towards the end but a 2-1 win over Calies and a 1-1 draw with Rapid saw Alistair Hales' men stay up.

Rapid was the luckiest side in the league, finishing second-last, only a point ahead of relegated Metro-Claremont.

Rapid sacked coach Otto Klaus in mid-season but the team's fortunes hardly improved under new coach, goalkeeper Phil Kannegiesser.

Metro's departure was tinged with sorrow for a number of reasons.

It is one of the oldest clubs in the State, it has always produced promising youngsters who have gone on to become great players at other clubs, and it is one of the few clubs with its own ground.

But, there is little place for sentiment in the game and Metro paid the ultimate price for its alarming lack of goalscoring power and its vulnerability at the back.

WHITE EAGLES TASSIE'S BEST

● Olympia-WPL coach Ken Morton (centre), holding the 1986 Pepsi Youth League trophy along with Jim Patiniotis (right) and Paul Tsangaris.

All in all, it was not a great season and there was not one consistent team in the league.

This was amply illustrated by the performances of White Eagles, Olympia-WPL and Juventus-Pioneer.

White Eagles lost in the final of the pre-season tournament yet went on to win the league title, only to fail miserably in both the top-four series and the two-legged State premiership play-off.

Olympia fared poorly in the league, won the top-four grand final, and then performed inadequately in the end-of-season Bohemian Restaurant Invitation Cup series.

Juventus won the inaugural Cascade Summer Cup pre-season competition and then went nowhere.

The pendulum of soccer supremacy seems to have swung in favour of the north of the state.

Ulverstone won the Honeychurch Premier League title and then ended the South's domination of the State premiership by beating White Eagles 2-1 on aggregate.

The northern representative side won the intra-State clashes against the South 3-1 on aggregate, while Launceston Croatia won the end-of-season Bohemian Restaurant Invitation Cup in a competition in which Olympia, the South's only entry, made no impact at all.

To top things off, Launceston Juventus striker Colin Guest won the Rothmans Gold Medal.

The two regional leagues will operate again in 1987 but the State's 10 leading clubs decided to re-introduce a genuine State-wide league competition in 1988.

On a brighter note, the highlight of the season was the youth international match between Australia and Czechoslovakia at KGV.

It was the first truly international match held in Tasmania and proved to be a great success.

Not only did Australia win 3-0, but the side was captained by Tasmania's Kurt Reynolds who attends the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra.

Dalmatinac wins State title, D'Orsogna Cup to Kelmscott

Spearwood Dalmatinac won its third State League championship by a nine-point margin over Stirling Macedonia, which had won the previous three State League titles.

The 27th final of the D'Orsogna Cup saw Kelmscott clinch victory with a 2-1 win over Second Division champion Kingsway Olympic. Kelmscott reached the final by playing three games in five days so its victory certainly was hard earned.

Kelmscott defeated Inglewood Kiev on Saturday, September 27 in a delayed quarter-final. On the Monday, Kelmscott met Bayswater Inter in a semi-final. After extra time, both sides were deadlocked so two days later, a replay was needed. Kelmscott won the replay and four days later knocked off Kingsway Olympic in the final, Kelmscott's goals coming from former Rothmans Medal winner Brent Atherton.

Kevin Elliott, Perth Azzurri's sharpshooter, scored 23 goals to win the Jeans West Golden Boot award as the leading scorer in State League. He received a magnificent trophy and $1,000, but could have doubled his prize-money if not for an injury sustained late in the season.

The conditions of the award were that should the winner score 25 goals then he would receive $1,500 and should notch 30 goals in the season he then would win $2,000. Elliott had reached his 23-goal figure by July 27 and with six games to go looked to have an excellent chance of reaching the 30-goal target. Until an injury he received against Balga on August 9 virtually ended the season for the talented striker.

Here are the leaders in the fairest and best awards (excluding the Rothmans Medal) throughout the leagues as well as the leading goalscorers:

Il 1987 sarà un po' la stagione della verità per la Lega Nazionale di calcio, e quindi per tutto il calcio australiano di cui la NSL è l'espressione più prestigiosa e la divisione trainante.

Due le grosse novità di quest'anno: il ritorno al girone unico di 14 squadre e la sponsorizzazione della birra West End per un totale di tre milioni di dollari per i prossimi tre anni.

Per quanto riguarda il girone unico, innanzitutto si ritorna ad una sembianza più vera di "lega nazionale", almeno in teoria. In effetti poi la partecipazione è ristretta a due Stati (Victoria e New South Wales) con una solitaria rappresentante del South Australia (la Juventus).

Per quanto riguarda l'affluenza di pubblico, che è sempre la considerazione principale di ogni sport popolare, il cambiamento a girone unico potrebbe avere degli svantaggi nelle occasioni in cui si incontrano squadre di due Stati diversi, perché ovviamente i tifosi della squadra ospite se ne staranno a casa date le distanze enormi. Questo problema potrebbe, anche se in minima parte, essere ovviato quando la squadra ospite sarà croata, greca o italiana perché diversi connazionali della città ospitante vorranno andare a vederle. A condizione però che il calendario sia fatto in modo che Croatia, Olympic, Hellas, Heidelberg Apia, Marconi e le due Juventus non giochino nella stessa città allo stesso tempo delle loro consorelle.

Ma, come abbiamo sempre detto, la più forte attrazione per il pubblico è sempre il miglioramento del livello dello spettacolo. I tifosi vogliono vedere bel calcio e si appassionano alle stelle, ai grandi nomi.

A questo proposito la riduzione a 14 squadre dovrebbe portare ad un sensibile miglioramento dello standard di gioco, poiché il minor numero di squadre sicuramente causerà una selezione più severa fra i talenti disponibili.

E, eterno problema del calcio locale, c'è da augurarsi che si registri anche un miglioramento a livello dirigenziale di Federazioni, Lega e società. Senza voler togliere niente alla gente di limitate capacità ma di grande volontà che ha amministrato il calcio fino ad adesso, è bene prendere atto dei cambiamenti avvenuti nella società in generale e nello sport in particolare e aggiornarsi.

Un incoraggiante caso di questo indispensabile ingresso di uomini nuovi e più preparati è stata l'elezione di Jack Reilly a Chairman della Victorian Soccer Federation (che già era la più efficiente federazione d'Australia) al posto di uno dei "padri" della V.A.F., Michael Weinstein che, in tempi diversi, era stato una vera e propria colonna portante del calcio australiano.

Jack Reilly rappresenta la nuova emergente generazione di dirigenti; ex asso della Juventus e della nazionale australiana, grosso finanziere e uomo d'affari, Jack porta nel calcio a tavolino una esperienza vissuta di cose calcistiche, un grande amore per lo sport che gli ha dato molto (orfanò ancora giovanissimo, si pagò gli studi con i piccoli ma utili introiti dal calcio), l'esperienza professionale (e una certa spregiudicatezza) nell'intricato mondo della finanza e degli affari; ed una gioventù che è sempre essenziale per mantenere l'entusiasmo anche nei momenti bui.

Mentre salutiamo Michael Weinstein e, a nome della grande famiglia calcistica, lo ringraziamo per il suo determinante apporto allo sport più bello del mondo, ci congratuliamo con Jack Reilly per aver deciso di rimboccarsi le maniche e gli auguriamo proficuo lavoro per i prossimi anni.

Ed ora passiamo in rassegna l'anno appena finito con il trionfo finale, e inaspettato quanto meritato, della Juventus di Adelaide.

Le zebre di Matic sono partite con il ruolo di comparse e hanno finito nella parte di grandi protagonisti. Nessuno avrebbe scommesso molto sulle "chance" di una squadra che l'anno scorso, con la stessa formazione, siera piazzata ad un modestissimo nono posto. Gli atleti juventini sono ovviamente maturati un tantino in più ed hanno potuto contare su un affiatamento maggiore.

Ma, secondo noi, la differenza determinata è stato Matic che ha saputo impostare gli uomini a disposizione in una formazione accorta e penetrante allo stesso tempo ed a mettere in atto schemi semplici e lineari che hanno permesso ad ogni giocatore di esprimersi al massimo delle sue doti tecniche ed agonistiche.

Senza togliere niente alla Juventus di Adelaide, bisogna però prender atto del deludente finale delle "grandi" Juventus di Melbourne e JUST che hanno

with ROCKY DI ZIO

Il 1986 è stato l'anno della Juve di Adelaide guidato la corsa allo scudetto per quasi tutto l'anno e son poi crollate sul finire a durante le finali.

La prova della Juventus, campione nazionale l'anno precedente, è stata alquanto deludente soprattutto per le giustificate aspettative dei tifosi che legittimamente si aspettavano di più dai campioni in carica rinforzati notevolmente.

Per il JUST invece si è trattato di una "resurrezione" andata male; l'eterno fanalino di coda mikava soltanto a salvarsi e ci è riuscito. I risultati iniziali avevano fatto sperare in qualcosa in più che non è poi arrivata. Naturalmente molto del merito va a Sekularac che ha saputo "rifare" la squadra dandole uno stile di gioco che ha colto ottimi risultati iniziali e riportato le folle sugli spalti. Così facendo però il tecnico ha attirato sui suoi uomini le ire dei colleghi tecnici che contro il JUST hanno messo in atto un "non gioco" spietato che ne ha neutralizzato le armi migliori.

Il Marconi si è nuovamente mantenuot ad un livello ben sopra la sufficienza, senza però mai entusiasmare né inserirsi seriamente nella lotta per il titolo. L'Apia ha colto risultati inferiori a quelli dei cugini di Bossley Park, ma indubbiamente più meritori perché era partita molto da lontano, avendo rischiato addirittura la retrocessione l'anno precedente.

Brisbane City ed Inter Monaro hanno dovuto ammainar bandiera, come previsto, e scendere così dalla massima divisione nazionale. L'inevitabile è accaduto e motivi di ricriminazione ce ne son pochi, perché le due società, nell'insieme, non avevano i numeri per sperare meglio; anche se il Monaro aveva bene impressionato con il finale garibaldino dell'anno precedente.

Nella lega statale del Victoria le tre italiane partecipanti, Fawkner, Morwell Falcons e Thomastown sono finite comodamente a metà classificazione infamia e senza lodi.

Il Morwell ha probabilmente lasciato alle spalle il suo periodo d'oro iniziato con la gestione di Fabrizio e sta ora assaporando amaramente le difficoltà di mantenere una squadra di provincia agli altissimi livelli del calcio statale senza un munifico ed influente presidente come "gentleman Don".

Il Fawkner ha ovviamente sofferto i postumi di una stagione disastrosa l'anno precedente (principalmente a causa delle beghe fra tecnici e comitato) ed ha dimostrato ancora ampiamente la fragilità di una squadra che non è riuscita ad abituarsi al ruolo di comparsa fra le grandi dopo essere stata per anni la grande protagonista fra le piccole. Comunque si è trattato di un altro anno di necessaria ed inevitabile maturazione e il ritorno di Gregorio Schipano alla presidenza (con l'ex Graffeo ancora in comitato) potrebbe essere un ulteriore motivo dell'affermazione definitiva degli Azzurri di Jukes Road.

Delle tre, quella che può essere più soddisfatta del suo rendimento è il Thomastown, società più modesta di mezzi e di ambizioni che puntava principalmente alla salvezza ed è andata ampiamente oltre il risultato prefissosi.

È ovvio però che il futuro del Thomastown non appare molto brillante, perché è pur sempre chiusa dalla Juventus e dai vicini di casa del Fawkner. Forse sarebbe il caso di riprendere quei discorsi di amalgamazione fra Fawkner e Thomastown che erano quasi approdati al successo alcuni anni fa. Il campanilismo e l'orgoglio sono una cosa, la realtà dei fatti è però ben diversa. È umanamente impossibile che la comunità italiana sostenga due squadre di successo nella stessa massima divisione statale e nella stessa zona metropolitana.

Nelle divisioni minori, il titolo di grandi protagonisti va a pennello a Veneto e Triestina che hanno dominato la seconda divisione e sono state promosse entrambi in prima, con lo scudetto che è andato ad appuntarsi meritatamente sul petto dei ragazzi di Bulleen.

Una buona annata hanno avuto anche Ivanhoe City, Regent e Batman Lazio; molto deludenti invece le due squadre che hanno l'appoggio (almeno in teoria) di due grossi club sociali come l'Abruzzo e l'Italian Social Club di Werribee. Ovviamente questi due club pretenderebbero che le squadre di calcio stiano lì soltanto per portare un po' di gente in più al bar e alle feste sociali. Invece che voler "mungere" dovrebbero capire che sarebbe il caso di "allattare".

Comunque rimane sempre il fatto che le società calcistiche in seno alla comunità italiana, fra grandi, piccole e minuscole, sono proprio troppe. Il frazionamento di mezzi, dirigenti, tifosi e giocatori è tale che si finisce con il classico "troppo fumo e poco arrosto".

Sarebbe auspicabile l'emergere di una solida società calcistica italiana nella zona di Springvale-Dandenong (invece della mezza dozzina di squadrette che vi vivacchiano) ed un ulteriore sfoltimento anche nella zona settentrionale di Melbourne. Una fusione tonificante e sempre meglio di una lenta morte per dipartimento.

In conclusione, il 1986 è stato pur sempre un anno altamente positivo per il calcio italiano in Australia in generale ed in Victoria in particolare; la vitalità di questo sport fra la nostra comunità è stata ancora una volta ribadita con i tornei nostrani di fine stagione, la Coppa Italia e la Coppa Italia Junior; quest'ultima è il più grande torneo giovanile d'Australia con la partecipazione di oltre mille giocatori.

Tanta vitalità, tanto entusiasmo e tanto talento e materiale umano a tutti i livelli sicuramente meritano maggior fortuna che può solo arridere con sapiente pianificazione, dirigenti più lungimiranti ed un pubblico più partecipe.

Viva l'Italia calcistica d'Australia. A tutti, Buon 1987.

ΤΑ ΝΕΑ ΤΩΝ ΟΜΑΔΩΝ ΜΑΣ ΑΠΟ ΤΟ ΣΗΜΕΙΟ ΤΟΥ ΠΕΝΑΛΤΥ

By

ΜΙΑ ΜΑΤΙΑ ΣΤΙΣ ΟΜΑΔΕΣ ΜΑΣ

Η ποδοσφαιρική περίοδος του 1986 ανήκει πλέον στο παρελθόν.

Από τις 30 και πλέον ελληνικές ομάδες που ανήκουν στην δύναμη της Βικτωριανής Ομοσπονδίας, διέπρεψαν το Άκλιφτον Χίλ και η Κλαρίντα, ενώ στην ερασιτεχνική κατηγορία, είχαμε τον Ατρόμητο και την Λήμη.

Άς ρίξουμε όμως μία ματιά πρώτα στον Αλέξανδρο και την Ελλάδα του Νάσιοναλ Λήγκι που με λίγη τύχη θα μπορούσαν να είχαν διακριθεί.

ΑΛΕΞΑΝΔΡΟΣ

Ο Μπράϊαν Γκάρθου για μία ακόμη φορά έκανε σωστή δουλειά και με αρκετούς νεαρούς παίκτες, κατάφερε να φτάσει στους τελικούς των "5" για να αποκλεισθεί. Γενικά η εμφάνιση του Αλεξάνδρου ήταν ικανοποιητική.

ΕΛΛΑΣ

Μέχρι και την τελευταία ημέρα του πρωταθλήματος, έπαιζε τον τίτλο του Νοτίου Ομίλου. Της έφυγαν καλοί παίκτες αλλά αυτούς που πήρε δεν αναπλήρωσαν τις θέσεις. Πάντως κάτω από άλλες συνθήκες η Ελλάδα θα μπορούσε να είχε κερδίσει στον Νότιο Όμιλο το πρωτάθλημα με δέκα βαθμούς διαφορά. Προπονητής: Γ. Μαργαρίτης.

ΠΑΝΕΛΛΗΝΙΟΣ

Αν πρόσεχε λίγο η ομάδα του Τζιμ Κονδύλη στο Στέητ Λήγκι, σίγουρα θα είχε τελειώσει στην τετράδα. Σε γενικές γραμμές πήγε καλά.

ΚΩΛΦΑΝΤ ΣΙΤΥ

Για πρώτη χρονιά στο Στέητ Λήγκι η ομάδα του Τάκη Σβίγγου, ξεκίνησε δυνατά αλλά στη συνέχεια έπεσε. Πάντως πέτυχε στον σκοπό της και στάθηκε κοντά στους μεγάλους.

Το ότι διακρίθηκε στο Ντόκερτν Καπ φτάνοντας στους ημιτελικούς περνάει στις επιτυχίες.

ΗΡΑΚΛΗΣ

Αν δεν έπαιρνε ο Ηρακλής τον Ρόυ Μακλάρεν στον πάγκο, σίγουρα θα είχε χάσει το Στέητ Λήγκι.

Επιτυχία λοιπόν γι' αυτούς που το σκέφθηκαν, άσχετα αν τους κόστισε οικονομικά.

ΩΚΛΗ

Το Όκλι με τεχνικό τον Χρήστο Καλιφατίδη, πέτυχε στον στόχο του. Κέρδισε το πρωτάθλημα της Α' κατηγορίας του Βικτώριαν

Λήγκ με 44 βαθμούς και 56-13 τέρματα. Από την νέα σαιζόν θα αγωνίζεται κι' αυτό στο Στέητ Λήγκι.

ΕΡΜΗΣ ΜΟΡΝΤΙΑΛΛΟΚ

Το Μορντιάλλοκ αν και είχε καλή χρονιά με τον Τζιμ Πυργολίδ στον πάγκο, τελικά έπιασε την 5η θέση στον βαθμολογικό πίνακα της Α' κατηγορίας με 30 βαθμούς. Τέρματα 41-30.

ΚΛΙΦΤΟΝ ΧΙΛ

Το Κλίφτον Χίλ φέτος έκανε το "ντάμπλ". Ο τεχνικός Μάνος Μήλιος πέτυχε απόλυτα στο έργο του. Το Κλίφτον Χίλ τελείωσε στην 2η προνομιούχο θέση της Γ' κατηγορίας του Βικτώριαν με 34 βαθμούς και 50-34 τέρματα.

Στο Βικτώριαν Καπ πήρε άριστα. Αφού νίκησε ισχυρούς αντιπάλους στον τελικό στα πέναλτυ κατάφερε να πάρει την πολυπόθητη νίκη και μαζί το Κύπελλο το οποίο κερδίζει για πρώτη φορά ελληνικός σύλλογος.

Από την νέα σαιζόν θα αγωνίζεται στην Β' κατηγορία του Βικτώριαν Λήγκι.

ΔΟΞΑ ΓΙΑΡΡΑΒΙΑ

Χωρίς κυνηγό που να βάζει γκολ η Δόξα που φαινόταν στην Γ' κατηγορία από τα φαβορί, τελείωσε στην 8η τιμητική 8η θέση του βαθμολογικού πίνακα με 28 βαθμούς και τέρματα 27-27. Προπονητής ήταν ο Κώστας Καραπαναγιωτίδης.

Ν.ΕΛΛΑΣ

Ίδια γεύση πάλι. Η ομάδα άρχισε και τελείωσε στις τελευταίες θέσεις (12η βαθμοί 19 και τέρματα 29-46). Ξεκίνησε με προπονητή τον Όσκαρ και στη συνέχεια πήρε τον Τόνυ Μπράουν.

ΚΛΑΡΙΝΤΑ

Μία ακόμη χρυσή χρονιά για την Κλαρίντα που κέρδισε το πρωτάθλημα της Α' κατηγορίας του Βικτώριαν Λήγκι με 35 βαθμούς και 45-18 τέρματα.

Προπονητής: Βασίλης Γκατζώνης.

ΠΕΛΟΠΑΣ

Μπορούσε ο Πέλοπας να είχε τελειώσει άνετα στην 2η θέση στην Δ' κατηγορία.

Έκανε μία κοιλιά όμως πρὸς το τέλος με αποτέλεσμα να τερματίσει 4ος με 30 βαθμούς και τέρματα 51-27.

Στο Βικτώριαν Καπ άξια έφτασε στον τελικό για να χάσει στα πέναλτυ από το Κλίφτον Χίλ. Τεχνικός Ραϊή Μακαΐη.

ΜΠΡΑΥΤΟΝ

Στη μέση της σαιζόν σχεδόν η ομάδα έχανε ελληνική. Τελικά δεν μπόρεσε να αποφύ γει τον υποβιβασμό της από το Βικτώριαν στο Προβίζιοναλ Λήγκι.

Τελείωσε στην 12η θέση (ήταν 13 ομάδες) με 13 βαθμούς και τέρματα 25-68. Προς το τέλος προπονητής είχε αναλάβει ο Νίκος Αποστολόπουλος.

ΜΑΛΒΕΡΝ ΣΙΤΥ

Αν και είχε καλό έμφυχο υλικό το Μάλβερν Σίτυ δεν μπόρεσε να μονταρισθεί σε όλη σχεδόν τη σαιζόν παρά τις φιλότιμες προσπάθειες του προπονητή Νίκου Νίκογλου. Τελείωσε στην 10η θέση της Α' κατηγορίας του Προβίζιοναλ με 18 β. και 33-44 τέρματα.

ΛΕΩΝΙΔΑΣ

Στην Β' κατηγορία του Προβίζιοναλ ο Λεωνίδας αν και ενισχύθηκε με καλούς παίκτες δεν κατάφερε πολλά πράγματα.

Τελείωσε στην 5η θέση με 27 β. και τέρματα 34 - 24. Προπονητής: Κ. Ξανθόπουλος
